INSIDE HISTORY.

CLAMOR FOR MONEY TO CARRY OHIO AND INDIANA.

Letters From Republican Leaders in the Campaign of 1880—Dorsey Begins to Be Avenged.

Special to the Gazette.

New York, August 28.—The Sun to day prints correspondence between Garfield, Dorsey, Marshall Jewell and other Republican leaders about the Indiana campaign, in which Garfield took the greatest interest. First comes two letters of Garfield to Dorsey showing his anxiety about Indiana and two more to Jewell on the same subject in the latter of which Garfield says: "I have no doubt that the result in Indiana can be made secure by following up vigorously the work which has been begun. Of course it is imperative that whatever is done in this direction should be done quietly."

Next comes a letter from Blaine to Dorsey, complaining that Blaine had not received any money from the committee, and the campaign was imperiled.

After the defeat of the Republicans in Maine, Senator Allison wrote Dorsey: "You must gather about you a corps of strong men who can aid you in raising funds. We must recover this disaster in Maine by carrying Ohio and Indiana." Blaine was carried by money, and the still hunt tactics must be played in Indiana and Ohio.

Letters are given in which Stewart L. Woodford makes a mild appeal for $50,000 to carry Virginia, closing with the expression: "Help us, Cassius, or we sink."

D. B. Henderson, who succeeds Dorsey as secretary of the committee, wrote: "Plant the troops in New York and put money in the purse."

Deacon Richard Smith wrote Jewell as follows: "I now tell you that as matters are going in Indiana and Ohio we are beaten in both states. There should be $50,000 judiciously placed in each state within the next ten days, and two-thirds of it should be reserved for use on election day. If your committee concludes to let Ohio take care of herself in half-way style, you might just as well give up now and not spend another dollar in any efforts."

Gov. Foster writes that they ought to have $40,000 in Ohio, and that he was trying to get hold of some men that could contribute liberally.

Levi P. Morton wrote on August 28 that a note should be sent to each member of the finance committee excepting Keen, and that he feared that they would get only small contributions.

Senator Platt wrote advising Dorsey to call on Rutter and Blanchard, Trunk Line railroad men, who would do all he wanted.

Hon. Jno. W. Forbes of Boston wrote that he would send money to Harrison in Indiana, but would not send to Dorsey, whom he seemed to distrust. The same gentleman also complained that New York was not raising as much money as Boston for the cause.

A whole batch of letters from John C. New are given, in which he says they must have material aid in Indiana, also that the Wabash railroad had been nicely milked, and that Secretary Sherman is a director in the Pittsburg & Fort Wayne road. "Wonder if he would help us," asks New; Gould can control a couple of Cleveland parties; Devareux and Hurlburt two others; Garfield can work the level and people. "This letter closes with the statement that they must have $10,000 more or stop fighting. Several letters from New acknowledge the receipt of sums of $3,000 and $4,000, and the last one closes: "If we can only carry Indiana, we can let them all be damned."

The whole correspondence shows the Republican leaders were in a partnership of fraud, levying contributions on railroads, big corporations and wealthy men to carry the election by the use of money. Dorsey has plenty more letters on hand. The writing cannot be denied.

WACO.

A Railroad Accident—One Man Killed—Local and Personal.

Reported for the Gazette.

Waco, August 28.—Major Rust of the McGregor Plainsdealer, is in the city drumming up "ads" for the big September edition of his paper. He informs us that he will issue 10,000 copies and deliver them direct to every farm house, by boys on horseback, within a given radius of McGregor, including a large portion of this county and portions of Coryell and Bell counties. Our merchants will find it an admirable advertising medium and we trust the major will receive a liberal patronage from them.

Mrs. Wm. Brooks has left for a visit of four or five months to her parents and other relations and friends in Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. John D. Merchand, a large cattle owner and dealer of Belle Plaines, is in the city. He is one of the most popular cow purchasers that ever threw a lariat or blistered a calf. He would rather own a bunch of poll cats than a flock of sheep.

The front trucks of the third car from the rear of a construction car, of the south bound freight, No. 157, jumped the track on the Missouri Pacific railway at 2:45 this morning, two and a half miles south of West station. The front trucks left the track and the front end of the car then rested on the coupling and thus the train was prevented from being wrecked. Two men, bridge builders, were asleep on the construction car, and they were awakened by the disturbance, and doubtless believing the train was about to be wrecked they jumped from their car while the train was running at a speed of sixteen or seventeen miles an hour, and one of them was killed and the other had his legs badly strained and bruised about his knees. The man who was killed was named B. Stowers, and the wounded man's name is Phillips. An inquest was held this morning and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts. The remains, by order of the company, were neatly dressed, placed in a coffin and shipped on this afternoon's five o'clock passenger train to his parents in Whitesboro, Texas. Six men were asleep in the car at the time of the accident, but as the other four did not leave the car they escaped unhurt.

The book-keeper at Lewine's dry goods store, Mr. Albert Canmann, celebrated his birthday yesterday. Mr. Charles Lemke gave him and his friends a handsome dinner on the occasion. He was also the recipient of a number of presents from his friends as well as the usual cordial well wishes extended on such occasions.

Mr. J. Leviniski of the jewelry firm of Leviniski & Albee, has returned from the East.

Major Haynie has grape vines which are now bearing the second crop of grapes. Some are in bloom and others nearly ripe, with grapes well developed.

Mr. W. R. Moore, a prominent insurance man of Tyler, was in the city to-day and went up to Hillsboro this evening.

Mr. Abe Rogers has a seedling peach tree, which has two kinds of excellent peaches, now ripe.

A big fishing party are going out to some of the Bosque to-morrow.

Miss Cely Bluford, who has been visiting the family of Mr. M. Surratt, left this morning for Oxford, Miss. She will stop a day or two in the Fort to visit her relative, Dr. J. S. Buford.

Miss Robinson, the sister of Mr. James A. Robinson of this city, left this morning for her home in St. Louis.

Judge John M. Lyle of Round Rock came in on the Mo. Pacific this evening. He is the guest of Mr. W. B. Morrison of the drug firm of Castles, Morrison & Co.

Mr. A. C. Petri of the Galveston, Tex., German Post was in the city to-day, and left this afternoon for the Fort.

BOWIE.

A Prosperous and Thriving Year-Old Town—Business and Crops.

Special to the Gazette.

Bowie, August 28.—The dry, oppressively hot weather continues in this locality. Scarcity of stock water, and more or less damage to the lower or second crop with falling off of squares of cotton are among the results. The soil is in a state of work, though injury therefrom is not great as yet, nor general. Despite these hindrances a fine yield is reported, an average of not less than half a bale per acre, possibly more.

Our little year-old "Wonder of the West" continues to grow steadily, and the improvements hereafter will be of a substantial kind. Messrs. Green & Crowl's handsome stone building is nearing completion. Contracts have been let for another substantial business house by Mr. Shay of our town, to be 25x60 feet of stone; another is in contemplation, 55x100 feet, and Mr. Proctor is commencing the erection of a frame storehouse, 24x60 feet. In brief, a building boom and an era of prosperity have just begun.

Our merchants anticipate a splendid trade this fall, and have equipped themselves accordingly. Bowie is the trade center to which a large and thickly settled scope of excellent agricultural and grazing country is tributary, and with its exceptional advantages will, of necessity, be a live, thrifty place of good proportions.

Appropos of the above, a census of our population, etc., taken private the 15th inst, gave us near 1,100 souls, with over fifty business houses. Add to this a good school building and school, five or six good hotels, etc., and all within twelve months, and can a better showing be made?

Three new bales of cotton have been brought in to date. This shipment from this place this season will approximate 10,000 bales. There are three or four buyers at present. Plenty of live cotton and grain buyers are always welcomed.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

A Fatal Fight Between Mexicans—County Assessments.

Special to the Gazette.

Corpus Christi, August 28.—Yesterday at a ranch near Collins, about four miles from this place in this county, a Mexican named Antonio Gario, beat another Mexican over the head with his quilt, from the effects of which he will die. Gario escaped but was afterwards captured.

The total assessments of property in Nueces county for 1883 foot up $6,000,000, which is an increase over last year of $300,000. Taxes rate at thirty cents on the one hundred dollars and will net $18,207, which will be sufficient to pay the current expenses of the county for the ensuing year.

LITTLE ROCK.

A New Narrow Gauge Branch of the Texas and St. Louis Railway.

Special to the Gazette.

Little Rock, Ark., August 28.—The articles of association of a new railroad were made public to-day. It is to be called the Arkansas Western railroad, and will run from a point on the Texas and St. Louis railway in Columbia county, Arkansas, through the western part of the state to Fort Smith. The stockholders are Silas G. Eddy of Denison, president; Chas. A. Leffingwell of Hot Springs, Ark., vice-president; Geo. M. French of Little Rock, chief engineer; James Barnes of Hot Springs, secretary; Geo. M. Huffman and Chas. N. Rix of Hot Springs. The length is one hundred and forty-eight miles, and it goes through one of the richest sections of the state and extensive coal fields. The capital stock is $1,875,000, which is also the cost of construction.

CLEBURNE.

The Santa Fe Pay Car—Local and Personal Mention.

Special to the Gazette.

Cleburne, August 28.—The Santa Fe pay car was expected to arrive to-day, but switched off at Temple and went up to Lampasas. It will pass up to-morrow.

The drought still continues, but the cotton crop has been so effectively damaged that a rain would not be of much service now. The decrease in the expected yield will be fully one-half.

The variety theatre will be opened here next Monday night.

A photograph will be put on exhibition at the opera-house next week.

S. B. Allen of the banking firm of Heard, Allen & Floore, has returned from a trip to Galveston and Lampasas.

A car load of broom corn was shipped to-day to St. Louis, via the Texas & St. Louis narrow-gauge railroad.

The arrivals at the Cleburne House to-day were: W. D. Draper, Alvarado; J. Schwinlin, Newark, N. J.; Alex. Orfield, Dallas; L. Newell, Atlanta; J. Moore, Galveston; F. Chas. G. Valley Mills; F. E. Reed, Syracuse; J. H. Thompson, Baltimore; John Pont, Philadelphia; H. C. Barrow, Chicago; A. W. Carpenter, Thorp Springs.

LAMPASAS.

Gray John Captures the Steaks in Yesterday's Race.

Special to the Gazette.

Lampasas, August 28.—In the races here to-day Gray John, owned by J. S. Hale of Burnett, won by about 11 feet over Alexander's Grey Dick, taking the purse of $1,000. A large and enthusiastic crowd was in attendance.

A DAY AT DALLAS.

A Fort Worth Base Ball Club Again Beaten.

Special to the Gazette.

Dallas, August 28.—The Blue Stockings, in the second game of the Dallas club, to-day defeated the Nationals of Fort Worth in the first of a series of three games. Score: Blue Stockings 21; Nationals 9.

Sheriff Santa took several attached witnesses to Weatherford to-day to testify in the case of the state vs. Eli McConnell, the child murderer.

There have been many exciting court scenes, but it is doubtful if any one can record one which created a greater stir than one in Justice Kendall's court to-day.

H. Goldenburg was arraigned for cursing the wife of one Seliger, all Russian Jews of recent importation. Witnesses were summoned and an interpreter called. It was a good case against Goldenburg, for all the witnesses swore they heard him curse the woman. The wife of the defendant dropped in during the progress of the trial to encourage her husband by her presence. Besides the witnesses, there was a large crowd attracted by the novelty of Russian Jews being in court.

Of a sudden, Mrs. Goldenburg fell over, vomited, and went through a series of agonizing contortions frightful to behold. She was picked up and placed on a bed in the rear of the court room. Dr. Schiff took in the situation at a glance, and avowed that there was about to be an increase in the Goldenburg family. Court was adjourned, and in a few minutes a son was announced in the Goldenburg family. The case against her father was continued till to-morrow. Court-house births are rarities in this latitude.

An excursion train left Memphis yesterday and also to-day for Texas via the Memphis & Little Rock and the Texas & Pacific railways. Both were crowded to the last inch of standing room with persons seeking investments in Texas. On coming into Texas the excursionists will disseminate and visit such points as their inclinations may decide.

The railroad put down the fare to them to two-third rates.

John Reese, who was employed a year ago in the gambling house of Scott, Sanford & Co. at Waco and absconded with the book roll of $300, was arrested here to-day on identification by Mr. Sanford, who made affidavit against him, charging him with embezzlement. He will be taken to Waco.

Race Chowning and Lem Childers were arrested near Vernon in Wilbarger county on the 22d instant by United States Marshal Tom Goren, on the charge of theft of cattle. They were taken to Graham, where they were released on bond to-day.

A runaway marriage of prominent parties took place at the Grand Windsor Hotel to-night. Miss Cora Dougherty, daughter of a wealthy banker and live stockman at Gainesville, and Mr. A. L. Fairchild, agent of the Missouri Pacific railway at McKinney, have been opposed in their desire to marry by the young lady's parents, who contemplated sending her to Tennessee to keep her away from her lover. She visited friends at Henderson, Texas, and on her homeward return was met by Mr. Fairchild on the Texas and Pacific road east of Dallas. The couple came to this city to-night, secured a license and the service of Rev. Thompson of the Methodist church, and were quietly united in the presence of a few friends without the knowledge of Miss Dougherty's parents. The happy couple took the north bound Texas Central train for McKinney to settle down in domestic bliss.

A Santa Railroad Engineer James H. Britton is in the city on official business. He says the management of the Transcontinental portion of the Gould system announce that steel rails will soon be laid down the entire length of that road.
